

RESTAURANT LA TERRASSE AT GOLF DE LA GRUYERE, A VERTU HOTELS AND RESORTS PROPERTY, JOINS PRESTIGIOUS GAULT & MILLAU

The restaurant, aptly named as it offers gorgeous outside space with unforgettable views of the valley, was awarded 15 point by the globally respected Gault & Millau guide.

Despite the difficult times that restaurants are going through due to the pandemic, La Terrasse at Golf de la Gruyère managed to rise above the challenge and offers excellent guest experience earning it the reputation of one of the best restaurants in the Sud Fribourgeois region (Switzerland).

"Superb, refreshing, smooth, surprising and extremely relevant" were the adjectives used by the judges to describe Chef Gregory Halgand's dishes. An exciting perspective for guests to look forward to when the restaurant reopens in February 2021.

La Terrasse is located on the premises of the Golf de la Gruyère, a property newly managed by VERTU's COO Philippe Attia. The hospitality development and management company's founder and CEO, Gérald Lampaert, states "we are very proud and thrilled by the results received by La Terrasse. This is the results of the establishment team's hard work, in perfect cohesion with VERTU Hotels and Resorts' values of excellency and great guest experience."

ABOUT CHEF HALGAND

Chef Halgand earned his stripes working in renowned kitchen such as Bernard Loiseau (3 Michelin stars), Patrick Jeffroy (2 Michelin stars) and Eric Briffard at the George V in Paris. Over the years, he won all three Toques d'Or, Prosper Montagne and Taittinger international awards. Gregory Halgand recently lead the kitchen at Chalet Royalp Villars where he earned one Michelin star and 16 points Gault & Millau. Halgand's approach is to assemble memories of his childhood in Brittany with Swiss terroir, using seasonal products from local suppliers.
